8:16 - Last Week:

- Sip & learn: It went well, a decent amount of people that came, people found facts that they were interested in, some people a little confused that it was a snackivity
- Corn hole: more people at cornhole than spikeball, tournament went really smoothly

8:18 - This Week:

- Collage night: Bringing everything down, the magazines, some stuff in the box. Alumni room, paper-sized cardstock, we've still got scissors and glue, 7:00, set up at 6:15
- Leadership speaker: Today, alumni room, 5:00
- Movie on main: Friday, at the theatre on main street, in-person invites, 80 for Brady, free admission, free snacks (potentially)
- RA events?: None this week

8:23 - Coming Up:

- The week after prep: ice skating – talk about it, it's by the fairgrounds, 13th, post the flyer.
- Miss usu eastern prep: Shifting, last one, not a scholarship, prize money instead, it's not going to carry into the next year. Making a video about signups and what's changing, any female students even if they aren't returning next year. Talk about it, ask your friends to sign up, and we want people to come and support too. Help setting up once it gets closer, we may table it somewhat. Talent, formalwear, and onstage question.

8:03 - Extra:

- Library spokesperson: at the beginning of last semester people filled out surveys for the library. One of the questions was what would you like to see in the library? More student-focused events, university sponsored events. The library wants to partner with us to put on some events, let's work together.
 - Silent dance for diversity week, Feb 28th just half an hour with headphones
 - March 2nd or 27th bracelet night, make small charms with 3D printer
