Ice Breaker

Sydney Lyman:

- Sydney is running for Student Advocate VP up in Logan. Sydney wants to make USU better. One idea she mentioned was getting ASL interpreters at USU Logan events. Sydney also mentioned including a statewide member on the Council of Advocacy up in Logan. Don't hesitate to reach out if anyone needs anything.

Discussion about last week's events:

- Golden Star: It went pretty good. T was a great dj for the dance. T will be our DJ for Lite Brite as well. MPR was great and we will use it for all the dances except for Lite Brite. When we advertise we need to push for Lite Brite and let people know where the black box is. If we ever want to do more than just a dance we can cut the MPR in half and have games on one side. Maybe we can get fans to push in cold air. The raffle was super good.
- Don't stuff your feelings: A ton of people enjoyed it. We bought more this year so there are a few extras. It slowed down at like 1 but it went really well.
- Snacks with Shaun: Turned out good, lots of good conversation.

Intramurals: Hadley

- Tonight! We will be doing Cornhole, Dyson is running it. Meet at outdoor rec at 5:30 for set up. Start time is 6

Bob Ross Paint Night: Sailor

- Tomorrow set up will be at 5 in the office as the event starts at 6. We will be following a Bob Ross video and people can paint how they would like.

Fan Appreciation Games: Hadley

- This Thursday we will be doing halftime at the girls game. We will be doing a Duck throw. If they make the duck in the pool they can win some money. We will also be doing a raffle during the men's game.

Focusing on the NOW: Dyson

- One thing we need to focus on is focusing on the now. We know what roles we are going to have and it is important that we finish this year strong. You can get so excited and it is important to prepare but we need to do what we need to to make this year everything it can be. We want to finish stronger than we started.

Dyson's Legacy Project:

- He will be helping out with the pickleball court.

Cornhole Boards:

- Dyson entertained motion for the approximate $4,000 for cornhole boards, Tiara moved, Mollie seconded and the vote was all in favor. Everyone who voted yes was Kacie, Sailor, Esi, Shaun, Haylee, Hadley, Mollie, Madisen, and Tiara.

Motion to adjourn meeting: Dyson

Move to the motion: Haylee

2nd: Tiara
